

Event experiences that move people.

IKM delivers event strategy, creative, and production powered by unmatched efficiency and experience. We help B2B tech companies turn events into growth engines, brand moments, and lasting connections. From the first idea to the last attendee out the door, we make every detail work harder.

We integrate event creative into your broader brand and marketing strategy so every touchpoint feels intentional, consistent, and memorable. Our team moves fast, manages complexity, and makes execution look effortless whether it is a live, hybrid, or virtual event.

We have partnered with leading B2B brands like Appian, AHAM, Expoto, and Linux Foundation, to create experiences that connect, inspire, and deliver results across the US, Canada, UK, and Europe. From creative direction to on-site management, we turn moments into momentum.

Our event capabilities include strategy, creative, branding, messaging, copywriting, design, direction, technical production, multi media, entertainment coordination, pre production planning, on site production, on site management, and post production deliverables.
